संस्कार युक्त शिक्षा द्वारा सर्वांगीण विकास,
यही हमारा आधार, यही हमारा प्रयास।

As you are aware that at JMV we nurture scores of seeds into saplings which later turn into flowers and fruit laden trees and spread the fragrance of the age-old values through the unique program 'Sanskar Samvardhan'.

It is a matter of immense pleasure that along with many activities which are already being conducted under this program, we are going to initiate a plethora of activities named 'PARIVARTAN' from the session 2021-22. Through these activities, our earnest endeavour would be to inculcate the values of love, care and respect for parents, grandparents, teachers, society and nature in the thoughts, feelings and actions of our students. Nurturing values is a collective responsibility of parents, teachers and society. So we as parents and teachers need to work hard on ourselves first. We need your support in providing the same kind of environment to our children as they experience in school.

A child learns in his/her behaviour by imitating what he/she sees around him/her. In this regard, we solicit your support and co-operation. Let's collaborate for nurturing the values in our children to help them be successful, contributing and happy global citizens.

Together let's give our children, the roots to grow and wings to fly.

With best wishes,

(Anupma Bhardwaj)
