

JMV WEAVES A TAPESTRY OF CULTURE AND SPIRITUALITY THROUGH 'सांस्कृतिक वितान प्रदर्शनी'

Amidst great splendour, zeal and resplendence JMVIANS experienced a momentous day filled with excitement, anticipation and learning as they celebrated their Annual Day 2023. The celebrations titled सांस्कृतिक वितान प्रदर्शनी aimed at enriching, expanding the cultural roots and instilling values among all. The festivities had an auspicious beginning as the gathering paid obeisance to the revered Guru Shree Vijay Vallabh Surishwarji Maharaj through Guru Vandana. Sadhvi Chandan Bala Shreeji Maharaj Saheb and Sadhvi Dharamratna Shree Ji Maharaj Saheb filled the air with spirituality, divinity and blessed all with Manglacharan. Planters and paintings were presented to accord a green welcome to the distinguished guests. Sh. Narender Kumar Jain, Vidyalaya Chairman, Sh. D.K. Jain Vidyalaya Co- Chairman, Sh. Shubhkant Jain ,Vice President, Shree Atma Vallabh Jain Smarak Shikshan Nidhi, Sh Ishwar Chand Bhabhu,Trustee Shree Atma Vallabh Jain Smarak Shikshan Nidhi and Sh. Ashok Jain, Secretary, Shree Atma Vallabh Jain Smarak Shikshan Nidhi and other dignitaries graced the occasion with their benign presence. After the Lighting of the ceremonial lamp, Bhagwan Mahavir Stuti was sung followed by Sankranti Bhajan and Sankranti Naam Prakash. The Cultural extravaganza was the highlight of the day and the Dance Drama on the life of Guru Inderdinn Surishwar ji Maharaj, crafted to convey moral lessons and teach valuable life skills resonated well with the audience. To nurture the spirit of benevolence and concern for others' well being, Sanskar Samvardhan Program that is a philanthropic endeavour of Matushree Rajkumari Sumer Chand Jain family was also organised as Teacher Incharges and class monitors were presented with envelopes containing an amount of Rs 50 to be used for welfare of others. Vidyalaya e-magazine 'Mrigavati' for the session 2022-23 was also unveiled. Students also presented a Dance Drama on the life of Guru Vallabh followed by an inspirational address by Sh. Ashok Kumar Jain who praised the gala event and called JMV a trailblazer which has attained many feats and credited it to the relentless and dedicated efforts of the Management, Principal and teachers of the Vidyalaya. The guests then visited the four pavilions viz, Bhagwan Mahavir Bhavyyanjali, Guru Vallabh Vatika, Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Lakshadweep and delved deep into the ocean of knowledge presented creatively by Vidyalaya students.